

CONSISTENCY OF THE SOUTH-HATER.
Philadelphia Times.—Law and order must be maintained—except in a Coney Island prize fight.

ASSIGNED TO ITS PLACE.

Philadelphia Press.—The United States Senate is the Midway Plaisance among the legislative bodies of the world.

HOW ABOUT THE SENATE?

Macom Telegraph.—America is ahead of England, as Mr. Gladstone says she ought to be. This is a country without a peer.

KNOCKED OUT BY CUPID.

Washington News.—Mr. Cook, the Kentucky giant, who recently got married wasn't strong enough to cope with little Cupid.

THE PROPER WAY.

Topeka State Journal.—If an Anarchist wants to thoroughly enjoy an explosion, why doesn't he be a dynamite bomb like Lingg?

HARMLESS CRANKS.

Topeka State Journal.—A crank wave is going over the country. Thank Heaven, Kansas cranks are not the murderous kind.

PLAYING AT RECIPROCITY.

Philadelphia Times.—About the worst kind of South American reciprocity is those Brazilians exchanging war material with each other.

A DANGEROUS REST.

Augusta Chronicle.—If Congress is as rumored, should take a two weeks' recess the Senators would come back dangerously invigorated.

THE SQUEEZE NOT OVER.

Kansas City Journal.—A large corps manufactory at Bridgeport, Conn., has resumed business. This indicates that the squeeze is not over yet.

HER PART OF THE WORRY.

Washington Star.—One of Washington's bright women was present while her husband discussed the financial situation.

"I must confess," said he, "that the money market has worried me a great deal."

"It wasn't the money market that worried me," observed his wife.

"What was it?"

"It was the market money."

THE HUMILIATING SENATE.

Philadelphia Ledger.—It is clear that the control in the Senate over the Wilson bill is to be a struggle of endurance. The Southerners assert that they will yield to nothing short of free coinage. It is an exasperating spectacle that a handful of obstructionists should be able, under the profession of so-called "Senatorial courtesy," to interfere with the dispatch of business and to deny to the country the relief that it urgently demands. What the outcome shall be remains even speculation. The French and British Parliaments have been compelled to adopt regulations for "closure," and it is high time that the Senate of the United States agreed to rules permitting the majority to govern, since that majority will be held to account for the responsibility resting upon it.

A WOMAN OF BUSINESS.

Louisville Courier-Journal.—We were camped alongside of an emigrant train in Nebraska, and just after supper a woman about 40 years of age, who was smoking a pipe, came over to our fire and sized the crowd up and said:

"I've got suttin' to say. I'm a plain spoken woman. When I've got a thing on my mind I don't beat around the bush."

We looked at her with curiosity and surprise, and she leaned against the wheel of a wagon and continued:

"I've been a widow for three years. Over that I've got a span of mewis, a good horse, a new wagon filled with housekeepin' stuff and I kin rake up about $90 in cash. I can roll along with the party to take up a claim. I'm good tempered, healthy and can swing a ax or hold a plow with most anybody. As I said, I'm a plain spoken woman. If there's a critter among you that wants to get married, let him stand up while I take a look at him."

The eleven of us promptly stood up.

"Git into line," she continued, with a wave of her hand. "I ain't after beauty or anything else. I'll roll along up a fellow who's a wolf to death."

She crossed down the line and then returned half way and said to a middle aged man of the name of Remington:

"You'll do, I reckon. There's a preacher in camp" and "twent' take fifteen minutes to settle things. All of you who want to see the marrying come on."

We followed the couple, who were made man and wife inside of twenty minutes, and next morning as we passed the wagon on the road the woman looked out and bowed and said:

"Sorry for the other ten of ye, but perhaps you'll meet up with the other train and strike luck."

DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1893.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to this effect.

Dr. DeWitt C. Franklin will leave to-day for a week's visit to Dr. Strode at Lexington.

Thomas Coughlin and William Newell have returned home from Chicago and the Fair.

Henry C. Pownall of Cincinnati is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Charles Greenwood of East Sixth street.

M. S. Wood, real estate agent of St. Louis, arrived yesterday on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wood of Forest avenue.

AN ACCOUNT OF A WEDDING.
(With Comments.)

The bride was a vision of loveliness! She was modest and demure. They met her dress, that was dream of beauty, and said, "Judas! Julius Caesar! her form and face!"

"She looked like a Queen!" I'll concede her. For it's true that most of our Queens are fat; "Accomplished and gitted!" What twaddle! She can virtuous a few bars, but her singing's a shock!

The groom was a Lochinvar, gallant to see! He was bold and impudent, and he said to be could be!

"She's a wondrous adoration, shore forth from his eyes!"

"Tut! Tut! Tut! What a good bundle of good times!" You are cordially invited.

At the matinee this afternoon will be presented "Hunted Down," and you will get your money's worth. A silk dress will be given away at this performance.

The regular Union Meeting of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the city will be held at the Christian Church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

Tue. Y. M. C. A. will meet as usual to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. John Duke will lead. Short talks, good singing and a good time. You are cordially invited.

There is a telegraph reader among our readers who would like to locate in a promising tobacco country to do well in writing to George M. Thompson, Lucille, West Virginia.

J. FOSTER BARBOUR has been suggested as a candidate for Council from the First Ward. If the people want a business Council, he is the sort of men that ought to compose it.

NOTHWITHSTANDING the dull times Purcell Bros. had more work than they could and now have in their employ their cousin, James H. Purcell of Middleborough, who is a master mechanician in his trade. Plastering, cement and ornamental work solicited.

The ladies were all in most ravishing gowns. Some of them were, but the Burtons and Browns. Old-fashioned coquetry and aunts of the old school said that I thought they would be "guysed."

"The presents were endies. No bride or the season received half so many!" A very good reason to grace the occasion! Such frauds make me sick.

Here's a list of the guests, the "favored four hundred!"

The reporter: Just see how just! How forgotten are to mention my name! Account of the wedding is awfully tame!" —Sister M. Beat.

The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space by the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or un-jadeable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsaleable goods into money, and re-investing the money in those things which are salable.

Where is That Banner Now? Greenberg (Ind.) Review.—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing this inscription:

VOTE FOR GROVER CLEVELAND
$12 a BUSHEL
FOR YOUR WHEAT.

A liberal reader will notice that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

For the convenience of the Free-trade party and the Free-trade members of the Ways and Means Committee who are at this moment confronted with the perplexing problem of at the same time reducing and increasing revenue, reducing it by abolishing customs duties and increasing it, God knows how. We give the following details which show the estimates of the public revenue for Great Britain during the year 1863-4 as follows:

Customs	$ 98,250,000
Excise	125,500,000
Stamps	65,000,000
Tax and house duty	12,300,000
Property and income tax	75,750,000
Postage	12,000,000
Telegraph service	12,400,000
Crown lands	2,150,000
Miscellaneous	9,750,000
Total receipts	$457,100,000

In the foregoing it will be noticed that England's revenue receipts from customs amount to less than $100,000,000, but our Free-traders should be able to do better than that for the United States and reduce them still lower. How would a stamp tax meet with public favor? It would not matter much to those Free-traders who do not pay their bills, but it would be an additional tax upon manufacturers and the poorer classes of wage-earners who do pay their bills, and therefore should not be lost sight of in framing the new Free-trade revenue policy.

The strength of the English wool market is mainly due, says The London Economist, to "the belief in a great demand for America next year. But until the Americans show their hand we must not look for any marked revival." The Free-trade party now in power in the United States has already shown its hand clearly enough. The first step in reorganizing our custom tariff was to listen to the pleadings of British onion growers. Then foreigners were invited to express their views upon our Tariff. The wool dealers of England and the wool growers of Australia have seen our Free-trade hand plainly enough.

The statistics published by the British Board of Trade show a decrease in the export of tin plate from Great Britain to the United States, which, during 1861, amounted to $32,145 tons and decreased to $27,479 tons during the year 1862. Though the early months of the present year showed average larger imports than during the early months of 1862, yet the latter months, July and August, have reversed this condition, the exports from Great Britain during these two months being just 38,000 tons, as compared with 49,000 tons during the corresponding months of 1862, and an average of 46,000 tons per month during the whole of last year.

A COLLISION

Between Colonists and Matabeles Imminent.

English Troops Will Be Sent to Subdue South Africans.

The Latter Have Fired Upon the British Forces—Volunteers, Well Armed and Mounted, Are Flocking From All Parts of the Colony to the Fronts.

CARL TOWN, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from the front says that the Matabeles have attacked a patrol of the Bechuanaland police, while the latter was on its usual round. The attack upon the police force occurred in the vicinity of Shabeni. The affair derives importance from the fact that it was directed against the imperial force, which has been protecting Chief Kahama, and it also indicates that King Lobengula intends to attack Tatani and assert his control. The police will be strongly reinforced by Kahama's warriors, and some severe fighting is anticipated. An official communication has been received here from the British colonial office, stating that it had been decided that a force of imperial troops, police and troopers is to occupy Tatani as soon as possible.

It is reported that the government will follow up the occupation of Tatani by sending a detachment of British troops and police to co-operate with the company's force in chastising the rebellious warriors of King Lobengula. Volunteers well armed, and mounted, are flocking from all parts of the colony to Fort Victoria, Charter and Tatani, and news of an encounter between the Matabeles and the colonists is expected at any moment.

The colonists are few in number, though well armed, but they will find it no easy task to defeat the rebels. The colonists of King Lobengula, as they are well armed, some of them having repeating rifles, and they are a hard race, trained and drilled to arms from childhood, and capable of enduring the greatest hardships of a march.

The population of Shabeni Island is about three hundred thousand, and every male of age is a soldier until too old to bear arms.

CREMATED ALIVE.

A Divinity Student Cremated in a Red-Hot Furnace.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 7.—Joseph L. Cornelius, one of the brightest students of the Harvard Divinity school, died at the Massachusetts General hospital Sept. 28. The fact was not disclosed, held by the authority of the hospital and university. Cornelius became insane through typhoid fever and crawled into the furnace by which the hospital was heated. He was partially cremated before the attendants could rescue him and die in a few moments. Cornelius was 35 years of age, and came from one of the most wealthy and aristocratic families of South Carolina. He was graduated last fall with honors, and was taking a special course when the fever struck him.

A SICK-WEASEL Square.

PEEBLES, Oct. 7.—Henry Smith, a farmer residing five miles east of this city, was here Friday morning, having in his possession a squirrel which he killed while out hunting near his home yesterday. The squirrel is snow-white, not having a dark hair on its body, and eyes are a beautiful pink color. The skin will be sent to Cincinnati Saturday morning to be stuffed, although Mr. Smith has been offered a handsome sum for it. It is the first of the kind ever seen in this part of the country.

National Committee Headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The suite of a dozen rooms has been engaged at the Washington Loan and Trust building here for occupancy by the republican national committee. It is stated that Hon. J. S. Clarkson will arrive here next week to open its headquarters and put things in order, and that he may take the charge and direct affairs from this quarter.

Three Voted for Acceptance.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—The Baltimore and Ohio telegraphers here have taken a poll among themselves, and all, with the exception of three, voted not to accept any cut in salary. They say that in other cities a similar feeling exists. General Manager Odell has gone to Chicago.
